

E NGLISCH

Entwicklungsbereich	ADHS
Titel/Thema	Story and learning objectives
Verfasser(innen)	Eriko Kobayashi
Erstellungsdatum	Juli 2021

Story:

Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler: The Smartest Giant in Town

This is a story about a giant finding his own character. By changing clothes, he tried to be recognized smart. However, on his way home, he supported every animal in need by offering his new clothes and he returned to put on the previous clothes. He gained a new perspective towards his previous clothes and realized how he was recognized by others.

Reference:

Donaldson, Julia; Scheffler, Axel (2010). The Smartest Giant in Town, Macmillan Childrens' Books.

Learning objectives:

- Understanding a story
- Learning new vocabulary
- Summarizing a scene
- Memorizing sentences
- Feeling rhyme and enjoying singing
- Making comparisons with the comparative and superlative
- Making an impossible wish by using subjunctive mode
- Retelling a story and acting it out
- Finding classmates' good points